AFFORDABLE HOUSING IN TRUMANSBURG, a historical presentation

Saturday, July 28 at 11am- Meet at the Ulysses Town Hall.

Town Historian John Wertis will lead a "walk and talk" to discuss the 1867 A.H. Pease Project, where several homes were built for workers on what is now known as Pease Street. If it is raining, the program will take place in the town hall.

GRASSROOTS PARKING

Please note that the town will post Falls Road from Cemetery Road to Cayuga View as a temporary no parking zone from July 16-23. Rabbit Run Road will also be posted as in prior years.

BUILDING/CODE ENFORCEMENT

This is a particularly busy time of year for the town building/code department. Tom Myers is often out on an inspection or meeting with people, so it is best to make an appointment.

For more information on building permits, link here: <http://www.ulysses.ny.us/contact/forms-permits-licensing/>.

ZONING UPDATE

The town has been working on updating its zoning law to bring it into compliance with the Comprehensive Plan and Agriculture and Farmland Protection Plan. The town board has begun looking at the drafts prepared with various committee inputs. Rezoning is a slow process and the Town Board deliberations will likely take some time. At least one public information meeting will be planned as well as a required public hearing before the Town Board can vote on the zoning law.. No new drafts are available yet, but the drafts finalized by the Zoning Update Steering Committee can be viewed at : <http://www.ulysses.ny.us/boards/zoning-update/currentdraft/>. The ZUSC continues to work to finalize draft zoning for Jacksonville.
